LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

1 THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2016-2017

1.1 Day Workshop on Developing English Language Skills

Programme Report:

In addition to the Certificate Course given to I year, UG students in Basic English Grammar and Communicative English, the Department of English decided to conduct a 3 Day Workshop on Developing Language Skills for all the I year UG students in July 11,12 and 13. Maintaining language proficiency is about being focused, consistent, and sticking good learning habits. Like muscles, language skills must be used consistently to prevent deterioration. This quote summarises it best: “If you are persistent, you’ll get it. If you are consistent, you’ll keep it.” Doing a language activity regularly can make a big difference. Setting clear and realistic goals can motivate one to stick to good learning habits until they become part of one’s routine. With these goals in mind, the Department of English prepared a syllabus for the workshop. A total of one hundred and seventy-three students were trained.

4 THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2019-2020

4.1 Day Workshop on Developing Language Skills

REPORT:

Besides having given an advantageous course for I year UG students, Certificate Course in Basic English Grammar and Communicative English, the Department of English also conducts every year a 3 Day Workshop on Developing Language Skills for all the I year UG students. It was on July 17,18 and 19 that the routine programme was conducted. Maintaining language proficiency is about being focused, consistent, and making good learning habits stick. Like muscles, language skills must be used consistently to prevent deterioration. This quote summarizes it best: “If you are persistent, you’ll get it. If you are consistent, you’ll keep it.” Doing a language activity on a regular basis can make a big difference. Setting clear and realistic goals can motivate one to stick to good learning habits until it becomes a part of one’s routine. With these goals in mind, the Department of English prepared a syllabus for the workshop. After having analyzed the oral feedback of the students, the Department observed that the workshop was very useful and decided to focus more on communication exercises. The feedback from the students clearly showed that the programme has enabled them to overcome stage fright and to boost their confidence level. The workshop was really an academically lucrative one. A total of one hundred and seventy- seven students actively participated in the programme.

5.2 3 Day Workshop on Developing English Language Skills

Programme Report:

In addition to Certificate Course given to first year UG students in Basic English Grammar and Communicative English, the Department of English decided to conduct 3-day workshop on Developing Language Skills for all the first year UG students in November 18, 19 and 20. English help students to roam around the world for business or higher education without any hesitation and fear about communication. With these goals in mind the Department of English prepared a syllabus for the workshop. A total of one hundred and eighty students were trained.
